

Round Two (24 points available) :

1	Film 2 points	In which two animated films would you find the characters Pumbaa and Pongo
2	History 1 point	In Britain, for what was Nancy Astor famous for
3	Name the companies / organisations from their logos (6 points)

4	Geography 4 points	Which four capital cities does the river Danube flow through. (three start with B / one starts with v)
5	Bio Chemistry 1 point	What is the nickname of the British based super sonic car that is in pursuit of the land speed record
6	Sport Football 4 points	Name the four football managers to manage in the premier league at the age of over 70
7	Television 2 points	Name the two inspectors played by Rowan Atkinson and David Haig in 'the Thin Blue Line'
8	Literature 1 point	Who created the Swallows and Amazons
9	History 1 point	Beginning with the letter 'C' what was the last pitched battle fought on British soil.
10	Music 2 points	She's been living in her white bread world comes from which pop song. And who was the artist.

Fact 'to get you talking'	In 1993, San Francisco held a referendum over whether a police officer called Bob Geary was allowed to patrol while carrying a ventriloquist's dummy called Brendan O'Smarty. Permission was granted, and Bob and Brendan continued to patrol throughout the 1990s.
--	---	---